SYDNEY

The perfect place to learn English.

The Sydney Opera House with its unique sails was designed by Jorn Utzon, a famous Danish architect. Together with the Sydney Harbour Bridge, it is the most well known symbol of Sydney. It is located at Bennelong Point. It was completed in 1973 after 14 years of construction. The Harbour Bridge is a spectacular sight. You can experience it all on the stunning Bridge climb tour, which is popular with not only tourists but locals as well. There are also many beautiful beaches. Whilst Bondi Beach is the most famous beach in Sydney, there are many other beaches located to the north and to the south of the centre of the city. They are all accessible by public transport. Sydney really is an excellent city for surfers. But if you're not into surfing, then there is still something for you at the beaches, too. Most beaches have attractive cafes and restaurants which serve delicious food. You can also enjoy national parks such as the Blue Mountains with its stunning scenery or the white sandy beaches at Port Stephens or even catch a train and go to Morisset to see some wildlife.

– CLIMATE

There are four beautiful seasons in Sydney. Summer is not too hot and winter is not too cold. The climate is mild throughout the rest of the year. If you take a look at any photo of Sydney, you'll notice how beautiful and blue the sky is! You will feel that the weather in Sydney is mostly sunny!

– ACCOMMODATION OPTIONS

You can find suitable accommodation, such as Homestay or Share House through our college. However, there are also some other accommodation options that you can pursue by yourself. These include arranging your own homestay, finding a place to live in the private rental market online, or through real estate agencies, who can give you a good idea of the type and cost of accommodation that is available.

Please note: Students under 18 years of age must reside in an MIT Institute-approved Homestay or with a DHA-approved relative. Private rentals and share houses are not permitted for Under 18 students.

– LIVING COSTS IN SYDNEY

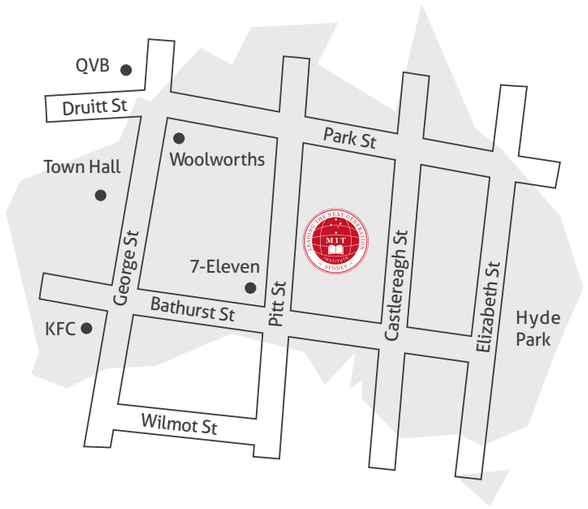

Before you come, you should be aware of how much it will cost you to live and study in Australia. On average, you should expect to pay about $500 per week for your living expenses because you will need to pay for your rent, food, transport, etc. (This is only an average cost; depending on your personal needs and circumstances.)

OUR SCHOOL

Established in 2006, MIT Institute provides a modern education experience, employing proven methods of teaching to ensure students obtain the best possible outcomes from their efforts. Our mission is to help people reach their maximum potential as language learners. We aim to do this by providing a wide variety of courses and study options that take into account students' previous language learning experiences, students' own cultural backgrounds and students' future plans. Student progress is carefully monitored so that they receive all the support they need.

– OUR LOCATION

MIT Institute is conveniently located near Sydney's Town Hall, right in the heart of the Central Business District. It can be easily reached by public transport.

There are plenty of food courts, shopping centres, banks and restaurants close to the school. MIT Institute is also within close walking distance of many famous tourist attractions including the Queen Victoria Building, Darling Harbour, the Sydney Opera House and the Sydney Harbour Bridge.

Tests at MIT

Your learning progress matters to us.

It is very important to check the progress of your English skills. MIT institute provides three different level tests to determine your level of English at each stage and to monitor your progress throughout your studies.

▶ PLACEMENT TEST (student entry level check test at orientation)

- All new students have to do an entry level check test during orientation - Reading, Listening, Writing and Speaking
- The Director of Studies checks the results of these tests and works out the most appropriate level and class for you.
- If you feel the class level is too low or too high, please talk to your teacher.

▶ UNIT PROGRESS TEST (weekly monitoring)

- Unit Progress Test every week of term
- This is to help you revise the week's lesson.
- Tests will be checked in class so you can get an idea about your progress and understand your errors.

▶ TERM TEST (every 5 weeks monitoring)

- Term test on the first day of week 5
- This is to see if you are ready for the next level, or higher courses including FCE, IELTS/EAP or OET.
- You will be given the results on Wednesday or Thursday in class.
- At this time, your teacher will let you know if you are progressing or staying in the same level.

ENGLISH COURSES

MIT Institute offers a variety of courses and our course system allows you to make your own tailored courses according to your individual needs and interests. You may choose your regular classes based on your goals and different Special Focus Modules will be provided based on your needs.

– REGULAR CLASSES

All the courses follow a textbook. Teachers will also provide you with other material like different textbooks, films, websites and, sometimes, they will take you on excursions to places that are related to the topics or themes you are studying. You will usually have one or two teachers for regular classes, and different teachers for Special Focus Modules. Regular classes run four days a week in the morning and five days a week in the evening, and the teachers will work closely with you to make sure all aspects of your language development are covered. Progress tests will be conducted regularly with a full term test every five weeks. However, some classes and levels will only be available upon demand.

- General English
- Foundation in IELTS
- EAP & IELTS Preparation
- Cambridge FCE Preparation
- OET Preparation

Special Focus Modules (S.F.Ms)

All students have four hours a week of Special Focus Modules. This helps you learn in various areas of English. Special Focus Modules include: conversation, current affair discussion groups, listening, reading, writing, grammar, pronunciation and so on. Special Focus Modules run depending on demand. In this class, you have a new topic appropriate to your level and your teacher changes for this hour. You have the opportunity to do each of the modules at least once every two weeks.

– KEY FEATURES

1. Students are exposed to a different Focus Module every day or two in order to provide the greatest possible grounding in each particular skill.
2. Each one-hour class provides a fun way for students to socialize with their classmates in a supportive atmosphere without the constraints of the syllabus in order to broaden their contact with the greatest level of English learning.
3. The flexibility of our classes and teachers combined with the wide range of different topics and modules allows all our students to quickly and effectively improve the skills which are most important to their needs.
4. The particular modules taught at the time of study are dependent on availability and demand, but there are enough modules for a full rotation at least once a week.
5. Students have the chance to learn with different teachers and experience different accents and teaching styles during the Special Focus Modules.

– POPULAR MODULE

Cooking Essentials

This fun, hands-on lesson is perfect for beginners or anyone who wants to learn how to cook quick and easy meals. You'll get comfortable in the kitchen as we cover basic cooking skills, knife techniques, and how to make a simple, delicious dish. You'll also have the chance to learn about international foods from other students and share a recipe from your own country. By the end of the lesson, you'll feel confident cooking at home and creating tasty dishes with fresh ingredients.

– OTHER REGULAR MODULES

- Pronunciation Module
- Speaking & Conversation Module
- Lower Grammar & Vocabulary
- Upper Grammar & Vocabulary
- Songs & Listening

Enrol : Any Monday
Entry Requirement : Pre-entrance test or Intermediate Level (IELTS 4.5 - 5.5 equivalent)

– ABOUT COURSE

If your answer is " Yes " to one or more of the questions below, you should consider FCE Preparation at MIT!!

- Do you feel that your English is fairly good, but hasn't improved beyond the level of day - to - day communication?
- Do you want to use English as an effective tool for better employment?
- Do you simply want to keep studying English, but want something other than General English?

FCE Preparation is for students of intermediate (B1 in Common European Framework) level which aims to prepare students for the Cambridge ESOS exam, First Certificate (FCE).

– WHY STUDY THIS COURSE AT MIT?

It prepares students for the exam with the necessary skills and accuracy in English. Close liaisons between staff and students ensures individual care and attention. Our experienced staff members truly understand the difficulties students face and possess the expertise to help you move forward.

OET Preparation

(Upper Intermediate to Advanced)

CRICOS Course Code: 0100126

Course Length : 6–12 weeks
Enrol : Every 6 weeks
Entry Requirement : Pre-entrance test or Completion of Upper-Intermediate Level (IELTS 6.5 equivalent)

– ABOUT COURSE

This course is for you if:

- You are an overseas qualified healthcare professional
- You want to study Medical English and enhance medical communication skills
- you need an OET score for visa, qualification or education purposes
- you have good everyday English but want to be a more sophisticated user of English in medical environments.

In this course, you will learn English to enhance your communication skills so that you can better participate in an English-language environment within a healthcare setting. The course also prepares you to undertake the OET test with confidence.

The course aims to develop your skills in reading, writing, listening and speaking. Thus, each day focuses on one skill. Additionally, you will study grammar, allowing yourself to gain a better understanding of the use of certain structures. You will also be able to have the opportunity to expand your medical vocabulary.

You will regularly do mini-tests, complete a full test every 6 weeks, receive feedback on your progress and be given advice on areas you need to work on.

– WHY STUDY THIS COURSE AT MIT?

Our course curriculum is unique and effective because:

- this course has been built and developed by a team of experienced English teachers,
- the teachers have received training provided by Cambridge Assessment English, and
- our team has learnt from the experts of OET at events, such as English Australia and NEAS Conferences.

When I came to Sydney, I was worried about speaking English, but now I can speak English much better than when I first arrived. Also, my teacher is always encouraging me, which has made me better, and I have met plenty of good classmates. If I need to study more, the MIT staff and teachers always help me. I'm lucky to have chosen MIT.

EXCURSIONS

MIT Institute offers excursions that include visits to the Sydney Aquarium, Powerhouse Museum, Hyde Park, New South Wales Art Gallery and Taronga Zoo among other famous sites. Our excursions have been very popular with all students who appreciate the opportunity to explore Sydney. Together teachers and students also celebrate special days and public holidays together, such as Halloween and Christmas, to increase cultural awareness.

Study Tours & Junior Programs

We offer safe, customisable, and highly engaging short-term English courses for school groups and young learners (Under 18). Combine interactive English classes with exciting cultural excursions, local school visits, and an approved Australian Homestay experience. Discover an unforgettable study adventure in the heart of Sydney!
